Hi Nonvikan Karl-Augustt,
Toronto, we're coming!

Join us at Canonical Day for a deep immersion into the open-source trends redefining enterprise IT.

We'll be tackling the big questions:

- Cloud native architecture, without the lock-in or the price premium
- Scalable data systems and AI innovation
- Strengthening your software supply chain against modern threats

Our local team will be present at Canonical Day to answer your most complex infrastructure questions and help you prepare your roadmap for the future.

Don't miss the insights - and the networking.

Spots are limited, so save your spot now.
